

SUB-HEADING: NUCLEAR CHALLENGE TO WORLD PEACE DURING THE 21ST CENTURY

Topic Sentence: Nuclear weapons are simply the most indiscriminately big challenge to world peace during 21st century.

Explanatory Sentence: Today, the world faces the dangerous prospect of a new nuclear arm race between the countries, this will have cascading effects on world peace.

Supporting Point: Countries are stockpiling their nuclear weapons arsenals by adding more advance and lethal warheads to gain regional hegemony, creating regional imbalance and posing threats to global peace.

Evidence: At present, approximately 14000 nuclear warheads are active around the world and ~~are~~ have more destructive capability than the bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki and the numbers are increasing (zevans.org).

Conclusion: Therefore, increasing number of the nukes is putting global peace at risk and can wipe out the life within matter of seconds.
