Pakistan is determined for peace in Afghanistan because peace in Afghanistan is extremely important for Pakistan. If looked at from historical perspective, Pakistan and Afghanistan are bound up with historical, cultural and linguistic relations. These relations are unbreakable. Both are interdependent and can not live without each other. From day one, Pakistan's stance has been that a political solution to the Afghan problem be found. China is also in favor of this view. China has said in this context that Afghan conflict can only be solved through negotiation involving the Afghan government. Pakistan and China for strategic shareholding will play their role to solve Afghan conflict through dialogue.
