

Title: "Attributes of Good Men"

A good man is the one who avoids intoxication and bad language. He goes to church regularly and has correct opinions on all subjects. He is not wrong anticipated. Being a positive role model, doing good deeds and having admirable moral-
It's important to protect young and be patriotic and to promote industry. He must be role model for all and he leads which the younger generation would willingly follow.