

Umar-Farooq

Essay Topic

Online Education has given more opportunities than Challenges.

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

Online education has both opportunities and challenges, but the opportunities are more than challenges. The opportunities of online education provides assistance in almost every field including economy, innovations and environment. It has also some challenges such as health issues, cyber crime, reduce physical interactions. While by taking preventive measures the challenges may be overcome.

2. Overview of Online Education

3. Online education leads toward opportunities:

i. Research and interactions with technology developed Student's Analytical and logical skills.

ii. Culture of online education helps

- digitalization of outdated system.
- iii. Online classes save time and money.
 - iv. Technology and internet leads students toward new innovations.
 - v. Advancement in technology improve health sector.
 - vi. Computer and internet increases students interest towards online learning.
 - vii. IT contributions and services improve economic condition.
 - viii. Learning at home decreases the uses of vehicle, which avoid disasters of climate change.

4. Challenges associated with Online Education:

- i. Learning through Online platform, affect student's mental and physical health.
- ii. Digitalization reduces infrastructure of institutions.
- iii. Learning on individual basis terminate student's interactive sessions & co-curricular activities.
- iv. Online platforms abrogate jobs in Physical institutions.

- v. Learning new technology affect student's social and ethical behavior by promoting Cyber Crime and Cheating.

5. Suggestions to Overcome Challenges of Online Education:

- i. Balance in study and life can maintain student's physical and mental health.
- ii. Besides Online learning, there must be joined sessions and sport Galas.
- iii. Students should be discourages about social and ethical crimes.

6. Conclusion