Relations is an important between two countries without relations countries cannot move towards progressing. yet we see relation between Pakistan and India's are very at danger stage. Both countries are fighting with each other on the line of control (LOC) and attacking on the ea. line of control on daily basis. If we see India always start violation on the line of control. ^{after} one or two day any person has dead due to Indian violation.

However both countries have past 75 years to become an independent on the world but unfortunately both countries have not stable - their relationship yet.

Kashmir is one of the major issue of relations between both countries. Kashmiri people are very poor people - they protects for - their right. Kashmiri people are not committing violation just they are fighting for - their freedom because they want to live - ~~their~~ peaceful ~~by~~ their region.
