G-20 Summit in Kashmir.
 In fact, India invited the world countries to attend the first G-20 Summit in Kashmir.
 Many luxuries preparations were done to reflect Kashmir as an integral part of India.

3. India's preparation for G-20 tourism summit

"highlighting everywhere in Kashmir is the responsibility of Indian government."

(- Modi, 2023)

India excitedly prepared for G-20 Summit. In fact, several preparedness were done by Indian government.
 Roads, buildings & highways etc were lightened fully.
 Thus, India wanted to show Kashmir as an Indian territory.

4-

Indian Ideology in holding G-20 Summit, Kashmir

Indian premier, Modi, wanted to message the world as an integral part of India. However, Kashmir was illegally occupied in 2019. But, India wants to show its authority and supremacy over Kashmir. Hence, G-20 Summit was held in Kashmir.

"Kashmir was a part of India and hence, is a part of India."

(Premier Modi, 2023)

5- Pakistan's reaction on Indian step

"India has occupied Kashmir territory illegally."

(- Imran Khan, 2019)

Pakistan strongly reacted on Indian step, G-20 Summit in Kashmir. In fact, Pakistan has criticized India openly.

"Kashmir is not a part of India, it will not be voted for territory."

(-PM, Sheikh, 2023)

Therefore, Pakistan responded against G-20 summit of India in Kashmir.

6- Criticism by the world

Many criticisms were done. Among them, few are as follows:

1) China's response on G-20 summit

China also criticized India. In fact, China advocates peace of the region.
"India must avoid unilateral aim."

(-Xi Jinping, 2023)

Thus, China criticized India's G-20 Summit in Kashmir.

b) Turkey's reaction against India's G-20 Summit

Moreover, Turkey also advocated the desire of Muslims in Kashmir. Being an Islamic country, Turkey stood with Kashmir Muslims.

"India must respect Muslim rights in Kashmir."

(-Tayyip Erdogan)

Thus, Turkey also reacted against G-20 Summit in Kashmir.

c) Iran's perception on G-20 Summit in Kashmir

Further, Iran also denied to attend G-20 Summit held in Kashmir.

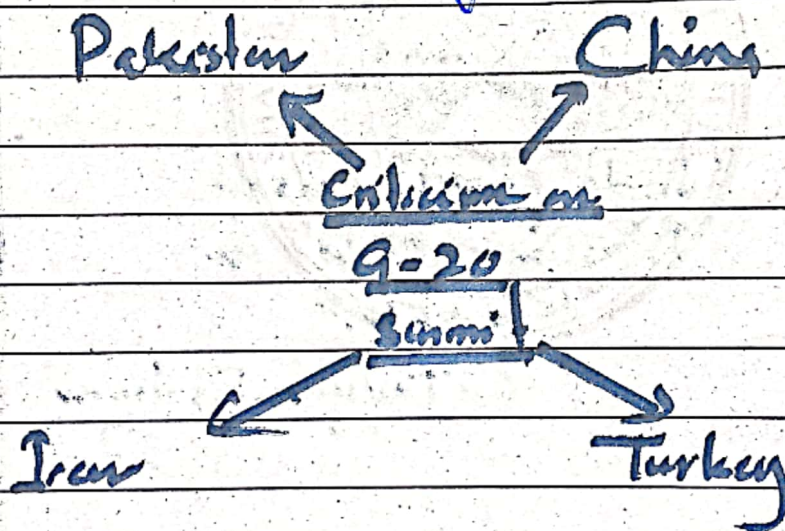

According to Iranian president,

India must stop violating human rights in Kashmir.

"India is aggressively violating human rights in Kashmir."

(- Al Jazeera, 2023)

Thus, India is strongly condemned by Iran.

7. India-Pak Kashmir conflict and the United Nations

"Both of them are not allowed to violate demographic concern of Kashmir."

(The UN, chapter 4, article 12)

According to the UN, India and Pakistan are not allowed to violate Kashmiri rights including territory, demography, freedom etc. Thus, the UN also advocated the rights of Kashmir.

"Kashmir is in its demographic nature, none will change it."

(- the UN, article 36, para 4)

8- Critical Analysis

India's C-20 summit is not a good and reasonable step. In fact, it will lead to tensions between two neighbouring countries. Moreover, the peace of Asia will also be imbalanced. Thus, Indian aggressive attempts will destroy the peace of territory.

"The war between India and Pakistan will be a nuclear war."

(-Barack Obama)

9- Conclusion

"Government is formed by respecting people's will."

(-John Locke)

India's G-20 summit is a message of India's aggressive policy. However, India wants to display Kashmir as an integral part of India.
Consequently, Pakistan, as well as, world Muslim countries have criticized on India's
-G-20 Summit in Kashmir.
