

Despite its urgency, climate crisis remains the most neglected cause.

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Climate crisis remains one of the most important yet neglected issue globally. It is due to the lack of attention by international authorities and deficiency of global awareness. This catastrophe needs to be countered through proper measures and cooperation between the countries.

2. Ignorance towards growing climate crisis and necessity to address this issue.
3. Root cause of this laxity causing climate calamity despite its urgency.
 - a- Rapid increase in urbanization.
 - b- Priority to economic interests rather than working in harmony.
 - c- New world order.
 - d- Lack of measures by international organizations.
 - e- Rising temperature of Earth
 - f- Manufacturing and emission of non-climate friendly products.

4. Consequences of this negligence and its impact on the world.

a- increasing wildfires.

b- increasing green-house effect

c- floods causing issues especially in developing countries.

d- spike in Health issues.

e- Resources crisis causing Tension between countries.

f- Refugee management due to displacement

g- Economic impact on the world.

5. Steps to be taken to control Climate crisis on top priority.

a- Effective strategies and implementation.

b- Awareness on individual and global level.

c- Consensus between countries to overcome this issue.

d- Promoting the usage of renewable resources.

6. Conclusion.