

Subheading: Job opportunities for the women of Afghanistan are decreasing in the government of Taliban

Besides, job opportunities for the women of Afghanistan are decreasing in the government of Taliban. The reason is that Taliban government in Kabul consider several jobs for women un-Islamic. Thus, Taliban regime has been imposing bans one after the other on the jobs for women of this beleaguered country since it came back to power in August 2021. For example, Taliban administration imposed a ban on beauty parlours in Afghanistan by maintaining that to run a salon was forbidden in Islam (Rafia Zakaria, 'Suffocating Afghan women', July 2023). Given this, females of Afghanistan find it difficult to earn for themselves in the presence of Taliban government.
