Is Pakistan ready for Digital Revolution.

OUTLINE:

1. Introduction
   (Thesis statement).

2. Crutch paragraph.

3. Why is Pakistan ready for digital revolution. (Thesis)
   a. Fourth Industrial Revolution. (4.0) is need of the hour.
   b. Youth of Pakistan can change Pakistan's its fate.
   c. Progress in digitalization can plunge Pakistan out of its economic recession.
   d. Digital governance is a convenience for all.
   e. Pakistan - so far so good in the field of technology.

4. If ready why is Pakistan lagging behind (Antithesis)
   a. Adressing social problems first is need of the hour.
   b. Youth is not utilizing its potentials in true spirit.
   c. Digital technology is not the only source to solve economic woes.
   d. Cyber security is not well developed to practice digital governance.
   e. Pakistan standing at the lowest in the field of technology.

5. Progress is slow but not static as there is always room for progress. (Synthesis).
   a. Social problems are hardly fully eliminated, so one must focus on what is in hand.
   b. Given proper direction and facilities youth is capable of much more.
   c. Although not the only source but one vital source to solve economic problems.
   d. Threat can be only averted if expertise work on making it secure.
   e. Low standing but is not zero standing and soon it will lead ahead.

6. Conclusion.