

Nuclear Challenge to World Peace in 21st Century

Topic Sentence The nuclear challenge to world peace is the most daunting issue of 21st century.

Reasoning Sentence The reason behind it is that every country is striving to compete its opponents in this nuclear race of 21st century by enhancing its weapon treasury and it is feared that world would experience massive destructions if war will occur in future.

Explanation Sentence The world is spending lavishly to build their nuclear assets and nobody is caring about world peace. Each country desires to become world largest nuclear power at the cost of global peace.

Evidence In 77th session of UN (2022), Cheikh Niang, Ambassador of Senega to UN, said that nuclear weapons and arms pose a serious threat to internal peace and security.

Conclusion Hence, nuclear weapons are the one of greatest menaces to world peace and prosperity.
