

What Pakistan needs the most ^{is} =

Charter of Democracy or charter of Economy?

1. Introduction

~~2. Pakistan in need~~ Thesis statement

Charter of Democracy is essential for the current condition of Pakistan.

Stability of country is very important for the economic and political development of country. Extensive democratic steps should be taken for the stability of country.

2. Pakistan in dire need of charter of democracy and charter of economy for progress

3. Pakistan needs charter of democracy for stability (Thesis)

a. Strengthened role of institutions

b. Decentralization of power not a one man show

c. Effective democracy in country brings economic stability

d. Promotion of local body governments

e. Autonomy and equal representation is granted to provinces.

4. Reasons that Pakistan does not need charter of Democracy (Anti thesis)

a. Political personalities are impacting the sanctity of institutions.

b. Decentralized power - a hurdle in implementing coherent economic policies.

c. Decadence of ruling party destabilises the economy.

d. No beneficial role played by local body governments.

e. Ambiguity in extent of autonomy creates conflicts between provinces and federation.

5. Charter of democracy can help in progress if prevailed in true sense (Synthesis)

a. Role and function of institutions should be finalized.

b. Decentralization of power can work better by giving prime importance to people viewpoint.

c. Rule of law and accountability.

help stabilizing the economy.

d. System of local bodies should be institutionalized for its better work.

e. Clarity of autonomy to provinces can contribute to development.

3. Conclusion.