Title: Oracles: Bridge between the Ancient Greece and Gods

During a human's life, he has to communicate with those superpowers who have decided the fate of his life and universe. As those powers give guidance to humans. In ancient Greece, similarly, this guidance provided to the people by oracles and soothsayers. These soothsayers interpretate the different phenomenon of nature through signs. However, sometimes Gods spoke directly and convey their messages to oracles, and they preached these messages of Gods to their ~~follow~~ God's followers. In addition, the prophets of Greece rely on the knowledge of future, and every oracle assigned to the one or more than one gods. In a nut shell, the ancient Greece recieved Gods' messages by their oracles.
