

Democracy in Pakistan: hopes and hurdles

Thesis Statement

①

Democratic system in Pakistan has been a victim of unconstitutional activities right after her birth till now. Poor administration, social and political mishandlings created hurdles. However, steps being taken at government level as well as by citizens to keep the democracy alive which has raised the hopes among masses.

Thesis Statement

②

These are hopes and hurdles in the way of democracy of Pakistan. Major hurdles include military influence in governments, unstoppable corruption trends among politicians, ignorance of citizens about their rights and duties and immature decisions by leaders make circumstances even worst. However, recent performance of election commission of Pakistan, mature decisions by leader at international level, cease of martial law has raised hopes among masses.