

Subheading: Muslim countries must speak against Islamophobia at every forum

Besides, Muslim countries must speak against Islamophobia at every forum. In doing so, they can win the support of others to end this menace once and for all. Several Christian clerics have changed their point of view about Islam, and they are talking against Islamophobia because of the speeches of a few Muslim leaders on this issue. For example, Pope Francis often say that they cannot say that Islam is a terrorist religion due to a few Muslim militant entities because all religions have fundamentalist groups (Muhammad Ashraf, 'Dealing with Islamophobia', July 2023). Given this, Muslim leaders must not stop talking about the menace of Islamophobia until it diminishes completely in the world.
