

_ / _ / 20_

Is Pakistan ready for digital Revolution?

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Crunch paragraph

3. ~~Reasons that~~ <sup>Why</sup> Pakistan is not ready for digital revolution

a. Illiteracy among masses do not allow them to accept new innovations

b. Not everyone has access to mobile phones and internet to utilize the technology to the fullest.

c. No institutions in the country where people can learn skills to utilize technology.

d. Some use the technology for evil doings

e. Pak-China IT projects has not completed yet to provide internet access to everyone

4. Reasons that Pakistan is ready for digital revolution

a. E-courts and E-voting system are established to ease the people

- b. Mobile and online applications of different institutions e.g. FBR, PTA are accessible
- c. (Online jobs are) People can get benefited through online jobs from their homes
- d. Pakistan large chunk consist of youth who are receptive of technological innovations
- e. Pak-China optical fibre cable will provide internet to far-flung areas.

Reasons that Pakistan is not ready for digital revolution are stronger

- a. Maximum population of Pakistan is of old school of thought who will not accept ~~no~~ technological innovations <sup>of everyone</sup>
- b. Poverty do not let access to mobile phones and internet
- c. High-technology institutions are not ~~pre~~available in Pakistan to help people for online earning efficiently
- d. Proper awareness is not given to youth on the usage of technology
- e. Pak-China technological projects have stopped due to political instability in <sup>the</sup> country