Pakistan's soft image

Pakistan suffers to create its soft image. Sadly, it is failed to show its soft image to the world. The recent political protest harshly damage the image of Pakistan. Consequently, it barely faced such losses economically, politically and socially. Moreover, nine May protest severely damaged the country's reputation as a nation across the globe. It was hard for international diaspora to explain to the world that what is happening in Pakistan. This <sup>will</sup> ~~is~~ further scarce the investors from investing in Pakistan (M. Ali, Why perception matters, 25 May, 2023). In short, Pakistan is seeking to generate a soft image to the world.
