

Q Analyze the charter of Medina as a social contract?

Introduction

Charter of Medina is known as Look for the correct spellings Constitution of Medina. Media accord was an agreement on person moral and political obligation among all the chiefs of Tribes in which boundries were demarcated to live in peaceful Co-existence. The manifestation of medina parts can be analyzed in the spread of Islam, organization of society, crafting and co-operation and international obligation.

Background

During the last year of Muhammad Rasool Allah (SAW) in Makkah. Structure is flawed The delegation from medina came, and Improve expressions offered him to be the Chief Arbitrator of 12 Arabs and 10 Jews clans. At that time Abdullah bin-Ubaidi was chief there, but due to his lack of Leadership qualities, tribes of medina Chose Rasool Allah (SAW) as the chief of these all tribes. The reason behind to making Rasool Allah a Chief Arbitrator was to settle dispute and stop war among them. Because they had been fighting in Medina involving mainly its pagan and Jewish inhabitants for around 100 years before 620, especially after the Bloodiest Battle of Buzah in 617, they realized that there should be one neutral chief arbitrator which sort out these disputes and bring peace in these regions, so for this they chose رسول الله (SAW).

Critically, Analyze Medina accord as Social Contract

Charter of Medina consists of 47 clauses. It was sort of social contract which have preeminent impact on over all people of Medina, so here is critical Analyzation of Charter of Medina as Social Contract

- ① Ensure Social equality. Charter of Medina brings social equality among the people of Medina. It gives equal rights to every member of the tribes. It was mentioned in the clause that branches of the tribes will have equal right as the mother tribes. This charter equally distribute the right and duty among the people.

②

③

(2) Freedom of Religion. This charter allow every ^{person} ^{to} ^{practice} ^{his} religion without assimilating with other religion in Medina. There were Arab Muslims (Ansaar & Immigrants) and Jew, and Pagan. Every one was allow to performed these religion ritual without any impediment.

Strengthen

(3) Concept of Ummah. Although, people in Medina there were from different religion and tribes. It was not easy task to make them united in one single identity without changing their religion and Tribes. Therefore for making them united, the concept of "Ummah" had been introduced by Prophet Muhammad in Charter of Medina. The word Ummah means different from others. It constitute a unified citizenry, having equal right and responsibilities, as distinct from other peoples.

(6) Hd

The city of Medina had population of ten thousand people. Although, for ^{reducing} the communication gap ^{to sort out differences} between them, there were a new system introduced.

In this system there were twenty districts each with a chief (nagib) and deputy chiefs (arif) and its meeting place (sagifah). Any difference among them were sort out by decision of Rasool Allah. Every one was bound to accept the decision of Prophet Muhammad (SAW). So these method makes them connected to each other and sort out difference among them.

(7)

(5) Collective Protection.

In charter of Medina there were social was social contract for collective defence. According to charter of Medina if one tribe would be attacked by other enemy all other tribes would help them. Additional to that all tribes would equally beared the expense

(8)

DATE: / /

(6) Helping hard-pressed with debts

In charter of Medina there was one clause which bound all signatory of this charter to help those who has been hard-pressed with debts. Those people who help these debtors should not expect any favour in its return. This clause was also sort of social contract which people help each other at there hard times.

(7) Blood money. Any one kill a person, that person would also be punished unless until the heir of the victim agreed to take blood money. In this clause of charter, state of Medina gives relief to the victim to taking their revenge or take it blood money for them.

(8) Declaration of War. All people of Medina were prohibited to declare war without the permission of Rasool Allah (saw). Additional to that, it was mentioned that if any one declare war without permission of Rasool Allah (saw) he and his

DATE: ___/___/___

his family would be responsible for all bloodshed injuries and damages.

Conclusion

According to Dr Hamudullah
Charter of Medina was first Constitution of the World. This Charter the bloodshed of 100 year War. This Charter brought Peace and Prosperity in City of Medina. The Charter equally distribute the rights and duties of the citizen of Medina. This Charter was very complete and simple which is still applicable in modern era.

You need to improve sentence structure to give complete sense to answer

Write 3 more sides

Add more content by doing research

Add references