

Paragraph: The Nuclear Challenge to World Peace during 21st century

Intro: sentence

The proliferation of nuclear weapons poses a significant threat to world peace during the 21st century.

explanat - dry sent:

This is due to their destructive power and potential use in conflicts, increasing the risk of regional and global tensions supporting point:

As more countries acquire nuclear weapons, the likelihood of conflicts escalating into nuclear warfare increases.

example:

According to a report by Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, there are approximately 15,000 nuclear warheads globally, with 9 nuclear states possessing the majority of these weapons (World Nuclear Forces, 2021)

conclusion:

Hence, the possession of nuclear weapons creates a dangerous environment where even the smallest incident could trigger a catastrophic exchange
