

Masha

Man is born free but <sup>where</sup> ~~everywhere~~ he is in chains

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: In early age of children he is free. There are no restrictions on him. He is free to do anything. And he is in chains when he crosses the age of 13 or teenage.

define freedom and chains of humans in this outline/essay

2- ~~What~~ Man wants to live his own life

relevance to topic

3- Society <sup>incls</sup> bounded Human

- a) Fear ~~about~~ don't do something wrong
- b) Family Pressure on Man
- c) Peer Group Pressure on Man
- d) Economically depends on others
- e) Political leaders depend on Public

4 Human Nature is in Chain

- a) Human is Social Animal
- b) Human is Bounded
- c) Fear about Nature
- d) Social Contract made human in Chain
- e) Human Nature is in Fear.

5. Newly Born Child is free

- a) No Tensions
- b) No Fear
- c) Do what they want
- d) Don't have ~~enough~~ enough knowledge.
- e) Everyone cares about child

6- Conclusion

First practice writing body paragraphs: you'll learn how to stick to the topic
Then move on to outline making