

Nizar Hassan is a Palestinian filmmaker who was born in 1960.

Avoid dates

He produced two films, Independence and My Grandfather's Path. Independence was a short film that depicted the illicit annexation of Israel to Palestinian land.

'My Grandfather's Path' is a long film divided into three parts. It tells the oppressed not to get cruel like oppressors for revenge. Nizar has saved his personality from dehumanizing through art and literature. He wishes the same for his people.
