

Rising Chinese interest in Africa impacting the French economy

Do not add a new point in conclusion

France is another country apart from America that is impacted by the rising Chinese economic power. In Africa, France has its ~~fourteen~~ ¹⁴ colonial states ~~those~~ ^{that} ~~it~~ ^{is} forced by France to pay colonial tax. ~~as well as~~ ^{As} those countries have their reserves in French currency which made France world's sixth largest economy. China is investing in these colonial states as well as in other regions of Africa and in the future their trade will be in Yuan like many other countries ~~those~~ ^{which} are trading with China in Yuan and this will challenge France's economy. It can be examined by the recent visit of France's President ~~Macron~~ ^{the visit} to China. However, publicly? ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~visit~~ ^{visit} was about curtailing Ukraine-Russia war but many experts ~~are~~ ^{are} elucidating that it was about China's interest in Africa which will make France's economy suffer in future. Hence, China's growing interest in all over the world ~~is~~ ^{is} giving benefits to some countries but many other countries are getting challenged by it and France is one of them) ← This is not discussed

this part does not correlate with half of the sentence

160+ words
anywhere in the para above