

LACK OF AGRICULTURAL MODERNIZATION AND POPULATION EXPLOSION

OUTLINE:

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: The lack of agricultural modernization and population explosion are intertwined domains. The world is currently facing unenviable population rise, which results<sup>e</sup> in reason for decreased resources, capacity and willingness to innovate agriculture. This has resulted in food crisis, environmental and geographical concerns. The menace can be countered by integral policy between both dimensions, check on population so that huge youth bulk could invest ~~resources~~ in agricultural growth.

2. Why population explosion creates hindrance for agricultural modernization.

3. Causes of ignorance of agricultural modernization with growing population explosion.

a. Shift of focus on more urgent humanitarian crisis instead of agricultural innovation.

b. Abstinance of modernizing agriculture which could overtake human jobs with the passage of time.

c. Lack of agricultural progression due to increased share of monetary funds on human development.

✓ d. Growing need of residential areas due to population sprawl usurp agricultural lands innovation.

✓ e. Lack of education to huge bulk of population ~~which~~ creates technological vacuum needed for agricultural innovation.

✓ f. The survival of fittest divert people to modern jobs for quick gains instead of long awaited benefits in agriculture.

4. Effects of population explosion on dictating declining agricultural modernization.

a. Increase <sup>Rapid</sup> urban development usurps <sup>significant portion of</sup> enough agricultural land to innovate.

- b, Insufficient yields in proportion to human population leads to food crisis. increase<sup>d</sup>
- c, Rising trends of climate disasters ensued by ↑ human activities further deteriorate agriculture discipline.
- d, Huge rural youth abandons investing in agriculture and shift<sup>s</sup> to urban areas for more modern facilities.
- e, Increased consumption of resources to sustain effete agriculture will create less resources available for population.
- f, lack of modernization in agriculture has impacted in exploitation of growing masses by feudals and elites.

Similar to point "b"

5. Declining agricultural modernization with growing population can be ~~be~~ resisted by:

- a, Integrated policies between agriculture and population crisis
- b, Facilitate agriculture innovation to cater rising population demands
- c, Check on unprecedented population growth and investing more on agricultural modernization
- d, Human cooperation in <sup>Expanding</sup> green policies for better agricultural growth.

6. Conclusion.

merge the causes and effects add more suffic