

Q

Define Bureaucracy. Also explain Max Weber's theory of Bureaucracy.

Answer 1

Introduction

"Bureaucracy is an engine of government machinery."

Good attempt
Try adding references from books

(- Alton M. Lybel)

Bureaucracy is an engine of government. In fact, bureaucracy helps in government policies implementation. Moreover,

Bureaucracy is a permanent wheel of government. Max Weber has defined bureaucracy as the most important axle of government. Thus, bureaucracy is the essence of government.

2-

What is bureaucracy?

"Bureaucracy is a permanent beastly of the state."

(- Quaid-e-Azam)

3.

Max Weber concept of
bureaucracy

"Bureaucracy is working
on the fuel
of 'knowledge
and expertise'."

(- Max Weber)

Max Weber consider bureaucracy is an important wheel
that run of the fuel
of knowledge and expertise.
Moreover, Max Weber explain bureaucracy all about the power of knowledge.

"Knowledge is the
most powerful weapon in the world."

4-

Max Weber comprises bureaucracy into four
concepts

Max Weber believed

in four concern of bureaucracy.

• Four concerns of bureaucracy

- ✓ Efficient working way
- ✓ Rational choice
- Organization and structure
- ✓ Indispensable

a) Efficient working way of bureaucracy

Max Weber is faith in efficient working
way of bureaucracy.
He believed that bureaucracy works in the most efficient way.

"Bureaucracy is
the root of
efficient style"

of working"

(- Max Weber)

Thus, bureaucracy works in an efficient way.

b)

Rational choice of bureaucracy

Moreover, rational choice of bureaucracy is an evidence of its working style. Max Weber believed in rational framework of bureaucracy that adds soul in it.

"Bureaucracy works in a rational way that maintain all things within a brief resources."

(- Max Weber)

Thus, bureaucracy works in a rational way, too.

c)

Organization and structure of bureaucracy

"Bureaucracy works in

an engagement
principle."

(-Max Weber)

Max Weber believed that bureaucracy is properly
organized and works
in a proper structure.
Thus, bureaucracy is an
organized body.

d) Bureaucracy - an indispensable?

Moreover, Max Weber
believed that bureaucracy
is a soul. Hence,
soul cannot be ignored.
Similarly, bureaucracy working capability can not be ignored.

"Bureaucracy can not be indispensable."

(-Max Weber)

Therefore, Bureaucracy can not be indispensable.

5-

Principles of Max Weber bureaucracy

Following chart
shows the principles of Max
Weber's Bureaucracy.

According to Max Weber, bureaucracy is composed of five principles. Chief among is its hierarchical structure from joining. Not only its hierarchical structure, but bure-

Explain principles properly bureaucracy works according to its management. Moreover, bureaucracy abhors personal interest, but prefer the public welfare. Further, bureaucracy is an organized legal body and comes through examination process. Therefore, bureaucracy is the competition of the main pillars.

6. Conclusion

"Government formed and government defected; premier comes and premier goes; but you (bureaucrats) are permanent. You must not support this political party and that political party; this leader or that leader.

This is not your business. But, an important responsibility is on your shoulders) you must fulfil your responsibility."

(- Quaid-e-Azam, an address to the Civil Society; Peshawar, 1948)

Bureaucracy is the most important and permanent soul of the state. In fact, bureaucracy also possess some valuable features that one describe in Max Weber's theory of bureaucracy. Thus, bureaucracy is a pillar of the state.

You have got potential
Good luck!