

Luther's Dream Of Impartial Nation

Martin Luther King ~~is~~ ~~poem~~ in his poem 'I have a dream' expresses his desire that one day his nation ^{will} develop with the belief of equality where the son of slaves and the son of owners maintain brotherhood. ~~Justice is prevailed in Mississippi.~~ Luther's offspring are judged by their character rather than skin tone. In Alabama, where racism was on peak, he wants to see black kids hanging out with white kids. ~~One day.~~ ~~One day all the status~~ ~~will be~~ ~~keep aside and let the glory of God reveal.~~ ~~With these hope,~~ King wanted to go Africa and ~~be~~ believed only these steps can transform ~~a disharmony~~ ^{harmonious one} nation into harmony ^{which} ~~ultimately~~ help in freedom cause.

main passage is not available basics are weak sentences are incomplete and incoherent need improvement in expression as your sentences convey incomplete meaning not satisfactory