

TOPIC: Man is born free but everywhere he is in chains.

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Freedom is essential for ^a peaceful life. A man, born in this world, is without any chains ~~or fetters~~, but with the passage of time his freedom is compromised. ~~Hence~~, ^{by} there are some internal and external factors that made free born man to a fettered man.

factors
← redundant

2. Historical Background of the axioms: Social Contract Theory of Jean-Jacques Rousseau

3. Understanding the concept of Freedom on chains

a) Freedom, a right to act, speak or think as one wants

b) Chains are the restrictions that bound man physically, mentally and emotionally

4. How an individual is being bound by chains in life

a) Too many restrictions on man retard development of ~~his~~ personality. J.S Mill

→ this is an effect not a chain

State only the point in outline

b) Individuals have restriction to behave according to their biological identity. ✓ late millet

c) All restrictions construct a limited

Psychological level of the individual.

d) Individual is restricted by family to spend life according to them. ✓

e) Individual is restricted to choose his profession according to the current trends. ✓

5. How societal norms compromise man's Freedom

← a) Society has chained the human being:

Anarchist Philosophers

b) Unaccountable authority restricts man: Hobbes

c) Society has inequality: Louis Althusser

d) societal construction of gender restrict people man: Simon de Beauvoir ✓

e) Religious chains of ~~society~~ restrict man. → how?

f) Societal norms does not promote equal rights to all man. → in what way?

what kind?

How?

what about chain?

6. How Global values bound the man

how?

a) Global territories bound man at one place: Carl Marx

b) Global laws bound man to compromise on freedom

c) Global trade bound man to depend on other nations

d) Globalization binds man to compromise sovereignty

7. Conclusion