

Does Foreign aid help to achieve economic stability? all sub points are not satisfactorily and directly related to the topic

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Foreign aid does not help to achieve economic stability. The country more We become overly dependent on foreign incentive which influences its foreign policy and security as well issues. We should stabilize ourselves through economic, social and political reforms by education, employment and developing human resources.

2. Causes of getting foreign aids:

Avoid personal pronouns

- (a) Under-utilization of natural resource
- (b) Weak government policies. -> clarify
- (c) Poverty, Lack of income to fulfill basic needs. -> write on national level
- (d) Global impact of worldwide challenges
 - (i) Human Migration
 - (ii) Climate Change
 - (iii) Pandemic Disease
 - (iv) Global terror

(3) Effects of getting foreign aids:

- (a) Developed countries gives aids to enhance their own security
- (b) Highly inefficient Human resources
- (c) Rampant corruption
 - (a) Ineffective government
 - (e) Unstable economic policies

(e) External debt create burden on economy

(4) Way Forward:-

(a) Make effective policies

(b) Give preference to FDI

(c) Expanding Local markets

(d) Increase the value of local currency

5 - Conclusion

Pakistan is deemed as more aid getting country in 2023. It is a global trend that developed country give assistance to developing countries

Asian and African countries also get assistance to better their life style, eliminate poverty but it has long term effect like dominance through power and influence on regional policies.

↑
Is This Intro?
Too short?