

2016 Precise

Title: A visit to Cherokee use marker

The author had difficulties to choose a place for tour but on his friend John's suggestion they went to visit he became happy when John suggested Cherokee, a country in Oklahoma, for visit. They visited a town named Qualla Boundary which was very beautiful.

It presents edw image of Cherokee to the visitors. Despite language difficulty they came to a shop with the help of people where they met with a George, a shopkeeper. He invited them for lunch and told about his daily work. He ~~used to cut wood before his shop.~~ They learnt from him that the people of Cherokee had d other means of income also. ~~than trade only.~~ On Friday, a large Bingo hall was opened where different kinds of games were played. These games attracted many people. At the end they visited a museum. ~~then they came back to home.~~ The author missed Cherokee very much. ✓ passage words = 480

precise words = 140

main idea is picked
too much useless detail
be precise and to the point
no need to explain
over all average content
5/20