

Q How do you see the G-20 conference in Indian held Kashmir? What objectives India tried to achieve? What are available options for Pakistan?

Answer- Introduction

"Group of 20 Conference by India showed aggressive face of India."

(-Munir Akram)

G-20 Conference in Indian held Kashmir is Indian's great step. In fact, India claimed its ownership and wanted to achieve certain objectives. However, Pakistan should approach available options to deter India.

2- Indian G-20 Conference in Jammu-Kashmir: an Overview

"Jammu Kashmir is an integral part of India."
(- Modi, 2013)

India decided to hold G-20 Conference in Kashmir. Because India claimed over the UN's disputed territory.

"Streets, roads, and buildings were decorated with multi-colored lightening."

(- Tejinder Arora, G-20 overwatch, 2013)

Therefore, India held G-20 Conference in Jammu-Kashmir.

3.

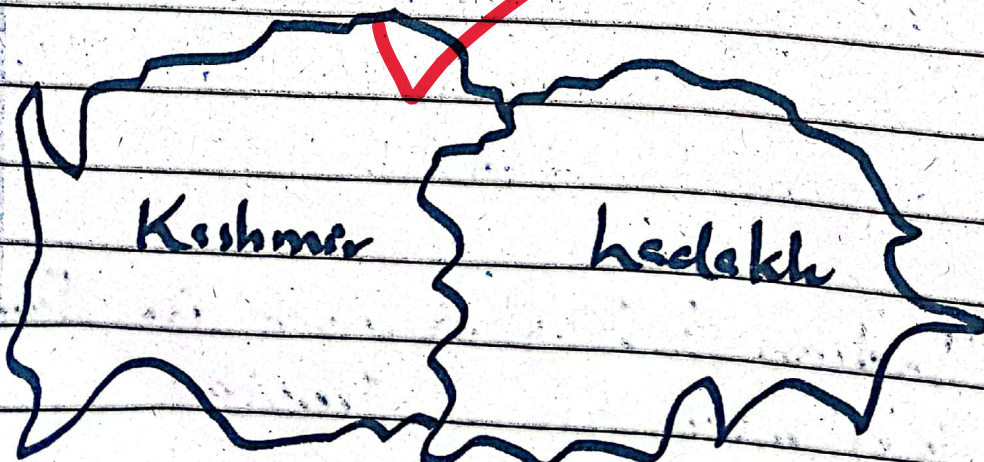

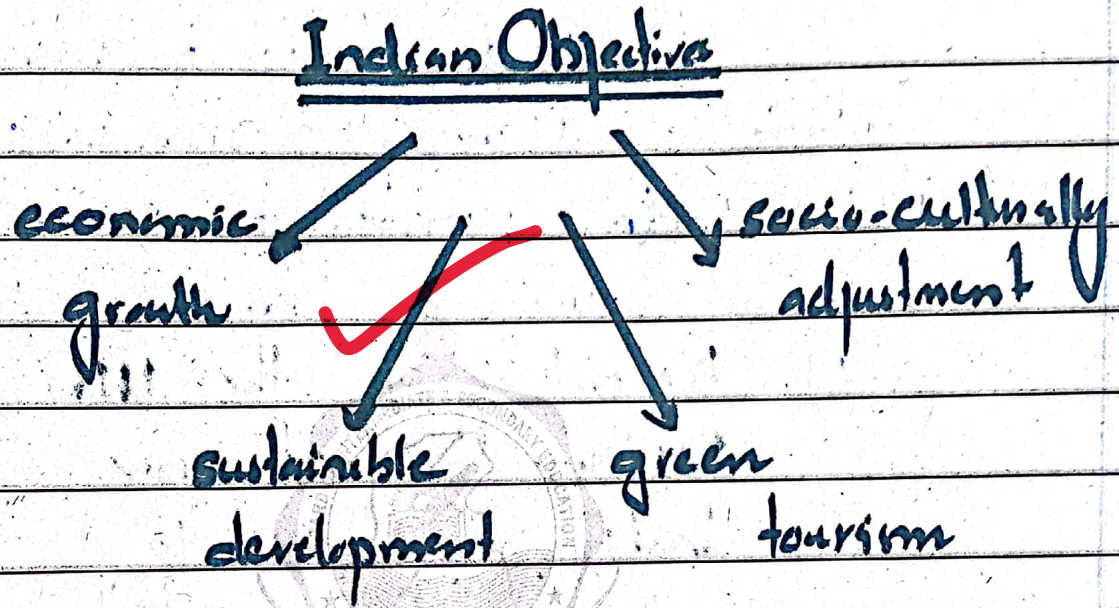

Figure # 1.

3- Objectives of India in G-20 Conference

India wanted to achieve following objectives:
you have missed the prime objective. legitimizing hold over Kashmir.

a) Economic growth at global level

India wanted to make economy strong at global level. In fact, India invited the world countries to encourage economic perspective in Jammu-Kashmir

"~~Jammu-Kashmir~~ will soon be the pillar of economy."
(-Modi, 2023)

Hence, India wanted to achieve economic purpose.

b) Socio-culturally adjustment in Jammu - Kashmir

India tried to reshape culture of Jammu - Kashmir. In fact, India wanted to present cultural values in front of the world. According to the UN, Neither Pakistan, nor India is allowed to reshape demographic and culture of Kashmir.

(-chapter 4 of 12 section of the UN)

Hence, India wanted to achieve socio-cultural purpose.

c) Sustainable Development and infrastructure in Kashmir

Moreover, India also wanted to develop region. In fact, India wanted to show its overwhem in the region especially on Pakistan.

"Kashmir is a part of India and it must be well-developed with sustainable infra-structure."
(-Modi)

Thus, India wanted to develop region as its part.

d) To promote 'green tourism' in the world

Furthermore, India wanted to get global influence by promoting green tourism. In fact, India wanted itself as a global friend.

"Tourism, but green tourism will be initiated on the land of Kashmir." (-Modi, 2019)

Therefore, India wanted to promote green tourism.

4- Available options for Pakistan

Following are available options:

a) To approach the UN

Pakistan has an option to approach the UN. In fact, India violated the UN Charter.

"Kashmir is regarded as disputed territory between India and Pakistan by the UN."

(-Munir Akram)

Therefore, Pakistan has an option to approach the UN for its defence.

b) To bring Indian black image to the world: Human Rights violation

Further, Pakistan can declare Indian black image in front of the world. Because India has been violating human rights since 2019.

"India revoked article 35A and 370 to suppress Kashmiri people."
(Al-Jazeera)

Hence, Pakistan can show Indian aggression openly to the world.

c) To approach Muslim Countries of the world: Solidarity with Muslims of Kashmir
Pakistan can also invite

World Muslim leaders to be united for Kashmir. Kashmir as a Muslim majority territory has been suppressing by Indian aggression.

'India did massive attacks on children, women, religious scholars and political leaders as well.'

(-Teqeer Hussain, an untold story, 2020)

Therefore, Pakistan can get unite with Muslim countries to protect Muslims of Kashmir.

5- Criticism on G-20 of India
"India must avoid unilateralism"

(-Xi Jinping)

Indian G-20 is strongly criticized by world countries.

Almost Muslim countries strongly dislited Indian G-20 in Jammu-Kashmir

"Turkey and Iran decided not to attempt G-20 of India."

(-Al-Jazeera, 2023)

Therefore, Indian G-20 is strongly criticized.

6-

Conclusion

"Indian G-20 led to hatred increment between two nuclear powers."

(-Munir Akram)

Indian G-20 conference held in Kashmir. In fact, India wanted to achieve certain objectives. Hence, Indian held G-20 Conference in Kashmir. Therefore, Pakistan needs to get 9 possible options to deter India from rickstrung the regime.

a bit short answer. add more arguments. and try to be comprehensive