

Social morality must be a part of human intelligence. The ability of a man to use his intelligence along with love can be a life-saver for him. It is a challenge for educators and educational institutions to produce morally capable individuals. Although it was a task of religious people but they failed to achieve it. Practical men paid attention to their power only. An ~~not~~ anticipation exists that education sector can inculcate moral values as a part of their human intelligence.

Title : Intelligence and Social Morality

Total words : 250.

Given words : 80.

title is written at the top not the end

main idea is picked

content is satisfactory

try to avoid picking words from the main passage

need improvement in presentation and neatness

7/20