

Q-2 Title:- Dream of Freedom and Equality

Precis:- Martin Luther King

The author has a dream of a united nation. He says that the time will come when everybody will be equal. He envisions future where all people will be judged by their character not the colour or cast. He says that one day freedom and justice will prevail in Mississippi. The harmony among rales will flourish in Alabama. All of the mountains of inequality will be made plain one day. God's glory will be revealed for all. He tells everyone to return back to South with the hope of freedom. He hopes that they will transform the jangling discords into a pleasant valley of brotherhood. He tells his people to work together in unity and to struggle together for freedom in order to achieve their desired goal of equality.

Idea is ok

Do not include examples in precis. Just give their gist. Use your own vocabulary as much as possible.

Q-3:- Questions:-

- 1- The invention of the weapon cannot be only attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov. Although he had played a significant role in inventing the weapon but there were many factors that contributed. The progress for ~~built~~ inventing the weapon had started before. Others also had contributed in inventing the weapon.

You are allowed to submit only one question in one pdf. The remaining questions may be submitted in separate pdfs.

2- The weapon was revolutionary rifle because of its simple design. It was inexpensive and light. It was easy to use. It was designed for harsh conditions. It was invented for defense according to the inventor but it became revolutionary due to these characteristics.

3- It was the time of war and crisis when the weapon was invented. That was the time of need for effective weapons. In the urgent times of war a better weapon was created. It better illustrates this notion that during times of crisis individuals are driven to invent solutions for the challenges.

4: According to the given passage the ones who carry the guns actually kills. The ones who carries the weapon are actually responsible for the killings and injuries of the people. It is not the weapon itself who kills people.

5: The last words of Mikhail Kalashnikov console his conscience. He says that he sleeps well because he is not responsible for causing the damage. He puts the blame on the ones who uses the weapon. It seems like he is trying to console himself for ~~the~~ inventing the injurious weapon.