

Umar-Farooq

Essay Topic

Democracy leads towards Nations Building.

Outline

1. Introduction:

→ Thesis Statement:

Democracy is a form of government in which people participate in decision making, which leads towards nations building. Today most of the developed societies have democratic form of government. For nations, building a strong democratic government is necessary.

does not encompass the whole outline

redundant

only one factor is discussed - mention how it leads towards nation building

2. Relations ^{b/w} of Democracy and Nations - Building

3. The key factors of democracy which leads towards nations-building:

- i. Inclusive and good governance Promotes National Identity
- ii. Accountable and Transparent government make good policies for Economic

- development. (Jobs, opportunities, Economic growth) X
- iii. Rule of law ensures safety and prevents society from internal and external threats. ✓
- iv. Citizen Participations in decision making leads towards political institution building. (Govt., Constitution, rule of law) ✓
- v. Separation of power ensures Justice and equality. (Executive, Judiciary, Legislators)
- vi. Economically Stable Political government improves infrastructure development. (Schools, hospitals, Transportation) ✓
- vii. Freedom of speech leads towards human capital building.
- viii. Good policies and unbiased decisions promotes National integration.
- ix. Freedom of Press helps in reconciliation and conflict resolution.
- x. Equal opportunities leads towards proper education and social services.
- xi. Proper Minority rights avoid ethnic and religious conflicts.
- xii. Autonomous civil society promotes media and information.

Economically

Make you relate each part of each topic with topic convincing by strong arguments

4. Conclusion