

Unemployment.

Unemployment is a social and economic issue that arises when individual seeking for employment. They are unable to secure suitable job. It represents the state of jobless that effect the many families. unemployment is a huge problem to those people specially who have not a financial and supportive background. Individual faces many difficulties with out a stable income. Individual may struggle to meet their basic needs, such as housing, food, and their health care. The inability to secure employment can lead to feeling of frustration, stress and low self-esteem. Reasons Individual may suffer a lot of problems to their health. In conclusion unemployment is a complex issue that affects individuals families and over all economy.