4: Negative impact of living together as a global village.

(a) War and conflicts between the countries

The world as a global village, is creating many problems like war and conflicts between the countries. Moreover, it can be a border disputes, and a security threat of one country to another country. In fact, the reason is the arm race and military build up of a country. For instance, the treaty of Russia and the United States signed the arm race limitation. However, it seems to be violated in the current world because every nation is trying to increase the weapons. The world is going towards weaponization. It can be dangerous for the world peace. In short, the world connectivity as a global village is continuously putting the world in conflicts and resulted in ~~the~~ a shape of war.
