ACADEMIC PARAGRAPH STRUCTURE

Sub heading: TRUTH IS LIVED NOT TAUGHT

Topic Sentence

Experiencing truth is more impactful than teaching it through books or words.

Explanatory or Reasoning Sentence.

A taught thing will never have life in it, it will remain lifeless unless it is lived in actuality. When we live the truth, we can understand it completely. When we undergo certain circumstances only then we will discern the matters ourselves.

Supporting Point
1

We can only teach a child that fire is hot, we can say that it burns but he will never learn what hot actually is until he experience the heat radiating from the fire.

Example 1

Ali swiftly got out of the kitchen with a matchbox which he needed for an art assignment, careful not to get caught/noticed by his parents as they have teach him that fire can burn. He closed the door behind and pulled one match out of the box and lighted it, he got so immersed in looking at the lighted match that the fire got to his fingers and burn them slightly. Involuntarily a shout came out of his mouth which grabbed the attention of his parents, they came running and after learning the whole situation they knew that now little Ali will definitely stay away from fire because he learned his lesson by living the truth.

optional

(Ex 2) to be written if SP is given

Concluding Sentence

Life is all about learning, self awareness and authenticity of situations and only a person who immerse in different life situations can fully know the meaning and truth of life because Truth is lived not taught.
