

English Comprehension Test 2.

Mirza Saad Kamal
28/5/25.

Online Batch 19

Q1

A1) The human beings fear death, just as children fear darkness. The fear of death in human beings is increased by the stories they hear about the anguish of a dying man whereas the fear of darkness among kids is increased by stories of ~~of~~ they hear of ghosts and ~~there~~.

Q2)

A2) The religious and sacred view of death is that human beings consider death as a means of punishment for the sins he or she has committed and that death is a way of making an entry into another world.

Q3) The painful experiences described by the Monks in their book is ~~not~~ that they undergo rigorous physical torture upon themselves as a means of self-purification.

Q4) Seneca views about death is that the conditions and rituals of death are more frightening to people than death itself.

Q5) The facts that make death appear more frightening than it would be are that a dying human being is heard murmuring groans; his body undergoes seizures; the face appears bloodless and pale; the mourning and crying of friends and families; and several rituals are performed, thus making death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.