

Democracy without justice is tyranny.

Outline

1- Introduction: Thesis Statement; Democracy is the best form of a government. In fact, it is a form of a government in which public rights are guaranteed. Role of an autonomous judiciary is very important in democracy. Simply, there is no democracy without justice, but tyranny. Hence, remedial measures must be taken to empower judiciary for the safety of democracy.

2- Democracy - the best form of a government

3- Role of a strong, autonomous judiciary in democracy

- a) Judiciary - a guardian of democracy
- b) Judicial Review in protecting fundamental rights
- c) Legislative and executive bodies - responsible to judiciary
- d) Ensure freedom of speech and mobility
- e) No pardon for violation of constitutional norms
- f) Assure free and fair election system
- g) Maintain peace and prosperity

4- Democracy without justice is tyranny

- a) Obstacle in human rights
- b) A cycle of elites' democracy
- c) Revival of military rule
- d) Threat to freedom of speech and mobility
- e) Rise of terrorism - a boost to TTP
- f) Social turbulence - decline in moral values

5- Suggestive measures to empower judiciary

- a) Ensure supremacy of constitution
- b) Awareness among public and promote students' union
- c) Free and fair election system - only way out
- d) Empower unbiased role of media

6- Conclusion