4. Negative impact of living together as a global village.

(a) War and conflicts between the countries

The negative impact of living together as a global village, as a result of war and conflict between the countries. The world is connecting more actively, with the help of information technology. However, ~~with~~ the connectivity is also creating war and conflict between the countries. In fact, the biggest example in the current world is Russia-Ukraine war. Moreover, the world is becoming multipolar which creates problems at global level. Similarly, the disturbance in one country can create problems on a global perspective. As far as the concern of border ~~disput~~ conflicts, ^{it is} still a question after colonialism. In short, the global connectivity is creating many problems on a global perspective.
