

⇒ Despite its urgency, climate remain the most neglected cause.

Thesis statement: climate remain the most neglected cause although it should be top priority. Last years floods, rise in temperature and currently rise in sea level is alarming sign for the world. Even though glaciers of the world are sinking which become create water crisis for the world, this all is happening due to climate change.