

Wren & Martin

Paragraph No. 7 - Prose

Bad habits such as over-eating, drinking or smoking acquired easily. One should fought the force of habit against them. Good things could be dangerous if taken in excess. Prudent man has conscious about his bad habits and promptly checked them. Tobacco has taken nearly all over the world. Those who acquired this bad habit once can't get rid of it easily. Alcohol is taken mostly in cool countries than hot ones, does not good in anyway and should be avoided completely. The constant use of alcohol could be dangerous for human body in many ways.

Title: Bad Habits