

Can Artificial Intelligence will replace humans?

Outline

1- Introduction: Thesis statement; Artificial intelligence is a modern technology of the 21st century. In fact, AI was designed to make human life more comfortable. Besides, AIs positive outcomes, it also has some negative impacts on a human life. Despite few negative impacts, AI is still more successful and relevant technology that has made a human life convenient.

2- AI - a modern chatbot of the 21st century

3- AI's positive role in a human life

- Countries' judiciary system is become more transparent and accountable
- Labour productivity is increased
- AI has brought quality of education
- Traffic problem is sorted out efficiently
- Media has endorsed role of ChatGPT to attract public attention

4- Negative impacts of AI on human life

- Humans role in judiciary is under threat of AI
- Except developed countries, developing countries witness threat of unemployment
- Students' dependency on AI - enclavive minds
- Traffic problem is still prevailing in the third world countries
- Information by ChatGPT is plausible - a threat to the truth

5 Counter negative glimpses of AI

- a) AI is dependent on human in operating its function
- b) Along with developed, developing countries have also approach to AI in employment
- c) AI has bent of students' minds to creative learning
- d) Almost across the globe, AI has managed traffic problem in a better manner
- e) ChatGPT has more relevant data than human biased information

6- Conclusion