

Outlines

Date _____ 20____
M T W T F S S

The necessity of, and resistance to, old-age homes in our society

Outline

1- Introduction: Thesis statement: Old-age homes are the most valuable in our society. In fact, the necessity of old-age homes is increased due to several reasons. Despite a positive role, resistance to old-age homes still exists in our society. Hence, some suggestive measures must be adopted to promote a positive gesture of old-age homes in our society.

2- Significance of old-age homes in a society

3- Why is necessity of old-age homes in our society?

- Old-age homes provide special care
- Health-care facility is good manageable
- A safe and secure shelter for old-age people
- A pleasant environment of old-age homes
- Old-age homes fulfill required attention of a family
- Proper and healthy food supply
- Remove isolation of vulnerable elder-people

4- Resistance to old-age homes in our society

- People want to get rid of their responsibility
- Accusing of unsatisfactory environment of old-age homes
- Religious perception of rights to elders
- A threat to moral values of our society
- Old-age homes are considered as a cause of isolation
- Unfair role of media in awareness of old-age homes

5. Suggestive measures to promote value of old-age homes in our society

- a) Awareness through education among society
- b) Public-private participation in promoting positive value of old-age homes
- c) Frequent visits of old-age homes to remove suspicion
- d) Affective role of media in spreading value of old-age homes

6. Conclusion