

Topic: Poverty anywhere is a threat to prosperity everywhere

OUTLINE

1) Introduction

Thesis statement: Poverty is a threat to the prosperity irrespective of places. The factors which led to the poverty includes; insufficient food resources, low production of agricultural sectors and imbalanced resource distribution. However, through poverty alleviation programs, investments in education and healthcare, and improved agricultural productivity helps in mitigating the threats to prosperity arises due to poverty.

2) What is poverty and importance of prosperity.

3) How poverty is interrelated to the prosperity.

4) Ramifications of poverty on Individuals and Communities

- (a) Limited access to education and healthcare
- (b) High number of crime rates
- (c) Lack of basic needs
- (d) Increase cases of epidemics
- (e) Worsening hunger led to malnutrition

5) Poverty impacts on Economies

- (a) Less contribution in the uplifting economic programs/schemes
- (b) Reduced productivity and economic growth
- (c) Spending on welfare projects increases
- (d) Limited market potential
- (e) unequal distribution of wealth & opportunity

6) Global repercussions of poverty

- (a) Migration and refugee crises
- (b) Spill-over effects of the global interconnectedness
- (c) Unsustainable resource of exploitation
- (d) loss of biodiversity

7) Poverty alleviation as a pathway to prosperity

- (a) Investments in education and healthcare
- (b) Poverty alleviation programs
- (c) Improving agricultural productivity
- (d) control of population

8) Conclusion