

Topic:

Role of media in projecting local

Day: / Date: unrest at global scale.

1- Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

Media plays a significant role in projecting local unrest at global level. It is the most powerful tool in shaping the perception of individuals and nations about every major national and international issues. However, many times, media is also responsible for exaggerating, distorting and amplifying local issues at global level.

2- How media projects local unrest at global level.

a- Media promotes violence

b- Media shapes public opinion

c- Media mobilizes political protests.

3- Negative aspects of media:

a- Media can distort truth or even exaggerate events at global level.

b- Media can amplify conflict.

c- Media promotes stereotype and prejudices

d- Media fails to resolve issue rather create propaganda

Day: / Date:

e- Media aggravates tension.
f- Biased reporting by taking sides in conflict.
g- Media induces fears and phobias.

4- How can media enhance its positive role in protecting local unrest at global level:

a- Limited channels should be allowed outside the country.

b- Media must have accountability free of government influence.

c- Media must revisit its objectives.

d- Media should follow peace pathways.

e- Media should start awareness campaign through news agencies.

f- Media should promote unbiasedness.

g- Media should promote interest of state.

5. Conclusion: