

TOPIC: Man is born free but everywhere he is in chain

OUTLINE

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Freedom is essential for peaceful life. A man, born in this world, is without any chain or fetters but with the passage of time his freedom is compromised. Hence, there are some internal and external factors that made a ~~freedom~~ born man to a fettered man.

2. Historical perspective of the quote.

3. Individual perspective of the quote

- a) Chains arise from biological needs
- b) Chains leads to psychologically constraining factors
- c) Individual is limited by the laws of the state
- d) Family restricted individual to live independently
- e) Relative bound individual with their egoistic nature
- f) Chains restricted individual to choose willing profession.

4. Societal perspective of the quote

- a) Education is not available for all
- b) Religious claims differentiates gender
- c) Inequality leads to decline of economic society
- d) Authority rests on Political power
- e) Society is restricted by the current environment
- f) Development of society based on development of other society.

5. Conclusion.