He was crying Punctuation

A hungry lion slipped out of the forest into a barn-yard. One evening, when he saw a plump donkey, his mouth began to water; but, just as he was ready to jump on the donkey, a rooster crowed. He was frightened and so turned away into the forest again. "Hey! look at that cowardly lion," the donkey brayed to the rooster, "I am going to chase him," and the donkey ran after the lion. "Wait!" the rooster shouted, "you don't know that," But it was too late. The lion had turned and killed the donkey. "Ah! my poor stupid friend," the rooster said as he watched the lion eating the donkey. "The lion wasn't afraid of you but of my crowing."

Letters between relatives and friends are called personal letters. The most important thing in such letters is the content. Do not begin with hackneyed phrase like 'I was delighted to get your letter,' 'received your letter,' or 'I have often thought of writing to you.' Use a vigorous, clear, chatty style.
