

Date: _____

Exuberant Population growth causes fast depletion of natural resources.

Explain the statement in the light of prevailing situation of Pakistan.

Introduction.

According to the World Bank report, the fast growing population causes serious repercussions. Pakistan ~~is~~ sixth is the ~~sixth~~^{5th} largest country in the world according to its population. Pakistan population is equivalent to 2.83% of the world population. Owing to it, Pakistan's natural resources are rapidly reducing food crises, energy depletion, global climate change are the ~~main~~ prominent issues directly linked with the increase in population. Moreover, the population growth inviting myriad challenges of varying intensity. However, Pakistan can be able to reduce ~~the~~ mere challenges by taking robust steps. Pakistan should reduce its growing population. It should work on agriculture sector, bring educate people for family planning, increase literacy levels, take lessons from other country in maintaining population growth, tilt the projects towards sustainable development,