

1 Precise

Ex No. 01

A good book is one of our best friends. It is the same today and it will never change. This is the most patient and cheerful of colleagues. It does not turn away from us in times of trouble or distress. It always accepts us with the same kindness. It entertains and educates us and gives us comfort in old age.

62 words

9 Helping Companion

A good book is like our those companions who never changes. Whether, it's a good or worse time. It always admires us with same charm. It helps us in learning and gives us solace in age.

Paragraph

A farmer's donkey fell into wall. farmer become so worried for donkey, and start looking for things that might can save his donkey. Wall was so deep that it was impossible to take him away. Farmer has given up and ask people to throw garbage into the wall that cause death to the donkey. People begin to throw useless garbage into the wall. Donkey screams badly, he was disheartened from his owner's act. But, whenever people throw something into wall, was helping the donkey to come up, and finally he come up from wall and happily run away.