

Paragraph writing

3: How the world is living together as a global village:

(b) Exploring the culture and tradition through tourism

The exploration of different cultures creates connectivity at a global level. Moreover, it brings people more closer to each other avoiding any discrimination. In fact, the world tour discovers the personal growth and self discovery. Travelling allows the broader concept of a diverse culture and understanding it meaningful. It allows one to explore the world in many ways, so that we can understand each other, destination, cultures, societies, and history. The more peaceful the nations, the more tourism encouraged. ~~In short~~ (Natalie Siagin, Impact of tourism on world, Dec 29, 2016). In short, the world is living together through, the exploration of different cultures as a global village.