

Thesis Statements

Essay 1 - Global Warming

Global warming, the phenomenon of increasing average temperature of earth surface is a serious concern over the past one to two centuries. There are various activities taking place which have been increasing the temperature gradually. Switching to renewable energy resources can overcome the global warming.

(Word count - 45)

Essay - 2 How to overcome energy crisis in Pakistan

The energy crisis is the largest single drain on Pakistan's economy. The present power crisis in Pakistan are self-inflicted problem resulting for years of poor policies and reckless attitude. There are several solutions that could be implemented to improve the situation.

(Word count - 42)

Essay 3 - Mobile phone, a pest or a blessing

The mobile phones have revolutionized the human life. Mobile phones are a blessing in disguise, this device has tremendously benefited humans and it has also caused havoc in the lives of users. However, this is determined by the way in which they are used.

(Word count - 44)