Topic

Both parents are responsible for raising up the children

Outline:

1- Introduction

x [Thesis Statement:

In Pakistani society, especially in religious people, both parents are considered as equally responsible for raising up the children.] x

Thesis Statement:

In Pakistani society, only mother is being accountable for the nurture and upbringing of children. While the father, along with mother is equally responsible for it. However, equal distribution of responsibilities of children's education, nurture, and upbringing can solve all the issues regarding it.
